

THE PHILATELIC TRADERS' SOCIETY

PTS Awards 2024 Launched

The Philatelic Traders' Society is delighted to announce that the PTS Awards celebrating the philatelic industry are back for a fifth year. Launched in 2020 to celebrate the best in the business, the awards seek to recognise PTS Members who invest in the hobby, innovate, and inspire others. They are well respected within the philatelic community and award winners and runners-up proudly display their PTS Award badges.

This year, we are excited to be celebrating four award categories as well as a new philatelic contributor award!

The categories this year are:

- Best Website
- Best Publication (including catalogues, magazines, reference material etc.)
- Best Social Media
- Best Physical Space (including retail stores, auction rooms, stamp show stand concepts etc.)
- Contributor of the Year (open to PTS Members AND non-PTS Members)

PTS Members and members of the public can make nominations across all categories. Winners will then be decided based on a public People's Choice vote.

Simon Carson, PTS Chairman comments

'The PTS Awards allow us all to recognise those who are innovating, investing, and setting the standard in philately. It's important to take some time at the end of each year to shout about all of the amazing efforts being made across the trade and hobby. If you think a PTS Member or someone within our philatelic community deserves to be celebrated, make sure you nominate them, and vote for them!'
